"BUY or BID"

SPECIAL CLEARANCE SALE OF LATIN AMERICAN COINS

OVER THE PAST EIGHT YEARS WE HAVE HANDLED QUITE A NUMBER OF COLLECTIONS AND CONSIGNMENTS from which a few coins of each group simply never were sold. Beginning with the massive Bandana holdings (1976), the Chapin date collection (1977) and the Davis collection (1979) and later including groups as recent as the Ray Johnson collection (1981-83) and the Oakland lot (1983), we have stockpiled quite a lot of material that did not sell after one or two offerings and then got ignored... With the current lull in the market, I have had the time necessary to gather these pieces and present them in a fairly coherent and orderly manner.

THE OBJECT OF THIS LIST IS TO SELL EVERYTHING! At least three consignors want to "wrap up the loose ends" and finalize their transactions. I have no "official" cost in the Bendana, Chapin or Davis left-overs. Now seems like as good a time as any to sell them.

SOME OF THESE SPECIFIC PIECES WERE NEVER LISTED FOR SALE BEFORE! When I perpetually have 1-10 pieces of a type in stock, some individual examples never are offered. Those particular coins are probably the best bargains herein. Other pieces are available at prices far below normal and should appeal to bargain hunters.

I REPEAT: The purpose of this list is to sell everything - I hope the low prices are adequately tempting... Regardless of how cheap prices are, some pieces will not sell. In order to also find new homes for these, we have devised a secondary system for disposal:

Whatever is not sold by March 1 will become auction lots. The reserve price in column 3 indicates the lowest price we would accept for each.

Thus you can buy whatever is available at the fixed price listed in column 2 ("wholesale") between now and March 1. If you want the coin for less than that amount, you can send in an "offer" or "bid" any time until March 10 for any amount between the reserve (in column 3) and the wholesale (in column 2)...

For example, with respect to coin #1, you could buy it right now for $350. If you will not pay $350 but would pay at least $250, you could send an offer of between $250 and $349 for the piece. Providing it is not sold at the $350 level by March 1, you will buy it at your offered price on March 10 if nobody else offered more than you. So if you offer just $250 and someone else offers $275, he will purchase it...

Thus this is a fixed pricelist from now until March 1 and a mail-bid auction with established reserves for all unsold items on March 10.

BUY IT OR BID FOR IT! If you are confused, just call and we can discuss it. Thanks...
